The Cat in the Bag

Name _____ Date _____

READ THE STORY ALOUD

Sam has a red bag.
He sets it on the mat.
His cat, Pip, gets in the bag.
Sam looks in the bag.
Pip pops up!

Answer the questions

Look back at the story as you answer.

1 What color is Sam’s bag?

It is _____

2 Who gets in the bag?

_____

3 Underline the sentence that tells you where Sam puts the bag.

☐ I underlined the clue in the story.

A Hat for Dot

Name _____ Date _____

READ THE STORY ALOUD

Dot has a big sun hat.
A gust of wind lifts it off her head.
The hat lands by a rock.
Ben picks it up and runs back to Dot.
“Can you hold it for me?” Dot asks.

Answer the questions

Look back at the story as you answer.

1 What lifts the hat off Dot’s head?

_____

2 Who picks up the hat?

_____

3 Underline the sentence that tells you where the hat lands.

- [ ] I underlined the clue in the story.

A Snack for Two

Name _____ Date _____

READ THE STORY ALOUD

Mia packs two plums for her snack.
At snack time, she sits next to Ben.
Ben opens his lunch bag.
“My snack is still on the kitchen table,” he says.
Mia gives him one of her plums.
They eat their plums together.

Answer the questions

Look back at the story as you answer.

1 How many plums does Mia pack?

_____

2 Where is Ben’s snack?

_____

3 Underline the sentence that shows how Mia helps Ben.

- [ ] I underlined the clue in the story.

A Spot for the Seed

Name _____ Date _____

READ THE STORY ALOUD

Leo puts a bean seed in a cup of soil.
He adds a little water and sets the cup by the window.
Every morning, he checks the cup before breakfast.
For three days, he sees only soil.
On the fourth morning, a tiny green shoot sticks up.
Leo calls his sister over to see it.

Answer the questions

Look back at the story as you answer.

1 Where does Leo put the cup?

_____

2 When does Leo check the cup each morning?

_____

3 What does Leo see on the fourth morning?

Underline the sentence that helped you answer.

_____

The Last Page

Name _____ Date _____

READ THE STORY ALOUD

On Friday, Nora takes a book about a fox home from school.
She reads the first few pages to her little brother.
At bedtime, she stops just before the fox opens a small door.
The next morning, her brother brings her the book before breakfast.
“What’s behind the door?” he asks.
Nora makes room for him on the sofa and opens the book.

Answer the questions

Look back at the story as you answer.

1 What animal is Nora’s book about?

_____

2 When does her brother bring her the book?

_____

3 Why do you think he brings Nora the book?

Underline the words that give you a clue.

_____

_____

Answer Key

Accept short answers or full sentences that show the same meaning.

1. The Cat in the Bag

1. It is red.
2. Pip, Sam’s cat.
3. “He sets it on the mat.”

2. A Hat for Dot

1. A gust of wind.
2. Ben.
3. “The hat lands by a rock.”

3. A Snack for Two

1. Two plums.
2. On the kitchen table.
3. “Mia gives him one of her plums.”

4. A Spot for the Seed

1. By the window.
2. Before breakfast.
3. A tiny green shoot. Clue: “On the fourth morning, a tiny green shoot sticks up.”

5. The Last Page

1. A fox.
2. The next morning, before breakfast.
3. Sample answer: He wants to find out what’s behind the door. Clue: “What’s behind the door?”